Boat Made From a Pearl.

A jeweler in Turin has made a tiny boat of a single pearl. The hull is finely shaped and might serve as a model for a racing sloop, the sail is of beaten gold, studded with diamonds and the binnacle light is a perfect ruby. An emerald serves as its rudder, and its stand is a slab of ivory.
Its weight is less than one ounce, and it is said to have cost $5,000.

Surplus of Men in Egypt.

Egypt is the only country in the world where there are more men than women. The male sex in the dominions of the khedive exceeds the female by 160,000.

Cooks Are Necessary.

A Pittsburg educator tells us cooks are paid more than teachers. Oh, well, one must eat, while, on the other hand, at a pinch a man can make his mark to a contract involving millions.

Peculiarity of Ear of Corn.

It is said that there is never an odd Chinese Dress Colors.

Any color or harmony of colors may be used in the Chinese costume except solid yellow. That color is reserved for the robes of royalty.
White enters not at all into the Chinese dress, that is, in solid color, for it is Chinese mourning.

Be Ready for Opportunity.

"Never permit yourself to believe that you are an unfortunate person," declared Rothschild. "If you do, you will probably really become such." The people who most loudly declare that they never have opportunities are frequently just those who, when they do come, are so unfitted to avail themselves of them that they can do nothing with them. Keep "fit" for what may happen and the occasion that may arise.

Too Tough to Kill.

A London Chronicle reporter who was fully alive to the dangers of his situation, wrote as follows from the scene of the recent automobile races at Brighton, England: "Motor cars at racing speed sometimes run out of the course, and to prevent the possibility of any loss of valuable lives the ground level of the promenade will be occupied only by representatives of the press."

Mason and Dixon's Line.

Recently a third survey of the historic Mason and Dixon's line between Pennsylvania and Maryland has been completed. The new survey was not on account of any dispute as to the boundary, but for the purpose of restoring to their places many of the historic monuments along the line, first surveyed in 1767, which had been removed.

Wear of Pavements.

In provincial towns in England the creosoted soft wood pavement has a life of from twelve to fifteen years.
At St. Pancras, London, where there is a traffic of 411,318 tons per yard of width per annum, the greatest wear of the Australian wood jarrah was 0.18 inch, or less than one-fifth-inch per annum.

Chance for Marriage Brokers.

If any one of your numerous readers (says a correspondent of a London paper) can introduce me to a girl possessing one-half or even one-quarter of the qualities so enticingly described by the late Max O'Rell, and a marriage results, I will cheerfully undertake to pay him £100 on my wedding day.

woman toward whom the man unconsciously directs the remainder of his Let a man be chatting to a number of girls. He gives a quaint little allusion that when fitly applied has a funny side to it. The woman who looks up quickly with the spirit of recognition is the woman he remembers

The woman with the sense of humor is the belle of the present day. She is the fashion. Men say she is a novelty. If so, that is one reason why she is the belle. To be like every other woman in a crowd means social obli-viation.

To see the funny side of things has more than a social value. The woman who sees the funny side of every-day trials saves herself many wrinkles and saves her family much suffering.

The woman with a sense of humor seldom worries herself or her friends.
She is like a breath of fresh air; she refreshes every one she meets. She is cheery, and a bit of her cheerfulness remains in the hearts of those who have been near her.

ON CHARACTER BUILDING.

Following are brief quotations from Charles Wagner's latest book, "On Life's Threshold:"

"We belong to humanity," is a large family, whose principal malady, transmitted the world over to all its members, is a sort of innate sav-agery toward our fellow-beings.
From this chief vice come all the minor vices."

"Be some one; God wishes it. Otherwise there would not be so many different natures and temperaments."

"The trouble with most of us is that we do not realize what we owe ourselves. To appear well to exert ourselves, to do well in business, we must necessarily think pretty well of ourselves."

"The end of man is to develop his body and brain as much as possible.
In order finally to be of service to his fellow-men."

"Education consists in enlightening directing and disciplining our will, not in breaking it."

"In the moral world the earth on which we build is truth."

"Truth is the salvation of the world.
It is the friend of all, even of whom it strikes. Wounds made by truth heal and cleanse; caresses of falsehood poison and kill."

Bible Written on Palm Leaves.

At Göttingen university there is a Bible written on palm leaves.

Electrical Communication.

The French Board of Trade publishes a table which shows that many has 242,000 employees in the postal telegraph and telephone service.
The United States comes next, with 239,000, followed by England, with 184,000, while France has only 81,600.

Forestry Agitation in Italy.

Virgil in his day spoke of the "waging woods" of Italy. To-day denuded hillsides are the rule, and the strenuous efforts of the "Pro Montibus et Silvis" societies have not yet succeeded in arousing the government to action in the matter of reforestation.

World's Windiest City.

Wellington, the capital of New Zealand, is said to be the windiest city in the world. It is situated on the rim of the funnel that separates the two main islands of which New Zealand is composed. This position makes it a veritable cave of the winds.

Iced Drinks Cause Apoplexy.

Italian physicians declare that the "American bar" established in their cities in recent years, are responsible with their iced drinks, for the increased number of cases of serious apoplexy in warm weather.

He Waited No Longer.

"You may refuse me now," said the persistent suitor, "but I can wait. 'All things come to him who waits.'" "Yes," replied the dear girl, "and I guess the first thing will be father; I hear him on the stairs."

Good for Damp Walls.

A solution consisting of one part shellac and two parts naphtha is an excellent thing for painting over damp walls. As soon as dry the wall may be papered.

Beer Known to Romans.

Beer is spoken of by Xenophon in his history of the retreat of the ten thousand. It was well known to the Romans as the beverage of northern Europe.

New Species of Weeds.

Soil brought up from a depth of 326 feet in one of the Belgian coal mines is said to have grown weeds unknown to botanists.

Lake Is Transparent.

Lake Balkhash in Asia is remarkable for the transparency of the water, the limit of visibility being eighty feet.

Japanese Women's Rights.

Japanese women now have, under the new civil code, property rights and privileges of divorce, which put them nearly on a par with women in England or the United States in those respects.

Russian Pilgrimages to Palestine.

The greatest pilgrimages to the Holy Land are undertaken by the Russians. It has been calculated that between 30,000 and 40,000 Russians visit Palestine every year.
